Hi. I'm Anastasia.

UI Designer & Frontend Developer

Currently training at the School of Code to become a better version of myself. Follow my journey here.

about me.

I'm Anastasia, a Frontend Developer
based in London.

As an abstract artist I have now progressed my medium into code. My journey began in April '22 when I joined the School of Code's bootcamp 12.0.
I enjoy turning complex problems into simple, user-centered designs, working across the full stack and developing my portfolio.
